

DRIEHAUS: "I'M SUPPORTING JOEY VOTTO"

CINCINNATI, OH—Representative Steve Driehaus today cast his vote for Reds' first-baseman Joey Votto for the 2010 Major League Baseball All-Star Game. Encouraging First District residents to do the same, Rep. Driehaus has published a link to the All-Star game ballot on his website, www.driehaus.house.gov. The deadline for voting is Thursday at 4:00pm.

"As a Member of Congress, I've taken a lot of tough votes, but this one is a no-brainer. I'm calling on Reds fans across our community and across the country to show your support and send Joey Votto to the All-Star Game," said Rep. Driehaus.

Prior to his service in Congress, Rep. Driehaus sold programs outside Riverfront Stadium before Reds games. In the recent Congressional Baseball Game, Rep. Driehaus went two-for-two with a double and two RBI. He throws right and bats left.
